

If people like myself choose to pay for commercial free music then it is our choice, government should not intervene. Come on, get real people!